LEDGER

REPUBLICAN.

WEEKLY REPUBLICAN—1867.
DAILY PUBLIC LEDGER—1869.

MAYSVILLE, KY., SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 3, 1906.

ONE COPY—ONE CENT.

To the Voters of Mason County:

At Boston, Mass., on Wednesday, November 1st, W. H. Moody, Attorney General of the United States, made the following explicit statement as to President Roosevelt's desire that the Congressional nominees of the Republican party be elected on next Tuesday—

"The President has made it manifest that it is his earnest desire that the Republican nominees should be elected and that the next House of Representatives should be in harmony with him," and pointed out the results that would follow the election of a Democratic House in the following language—

"Can any sane man doubt under such circumstances that the whole power of the House of Representatives will be exerted to thwart the President in the measures which he proposed and to render the rest of his term of office entirely insignificant?"

Secretary of State Elihu Root at Utica, N. Y., on the same day, spoke to the same effect.

The sharp question, therefore, presented is, are you in favor of Roosevelt, and do you desire to help him in his great work of correcting evils that have accompanied the great prosperity of our land?

If you want to help him, you will vote for J. B. Bennett, the Republican nominee for Congress.

If you want to embarrass him, and render possible the condition pointed out by Secretary Moody as given above, you will vote for J. N. Kehoe.

DEAD matter for publication must be handed in before 9 o'clock a.m.

Ray's Cough Syrup will cure any cough or money refunded 25 cents.

There has been some quiet hustling here this week in arranging details for the Congressional and Senatorial races Tuesday. The Lieutenant's of both contestants have about completed the work assigned them and now await the bugle blast for the beginning of the fray.

Our last "Watch" sale was such a success we have decided to put on another lot of these watches at the same prices, and as an extra inducement, we give tickets on the elegant Diamond Ring with every dollar's worth of goods.

P. J. MURPHY, the Jeweler.

Mr. James Easton of Rowan county is in the city on a visit to his brother, Mr. George Easton, and other relatives. He is one of the old-time firemen of Maysville, holding life membership in the Washington, and was present at last night's meeting. He left here in March, 1867—nearly forty years ago.

The manner in which the now made gutter-log in Second street has been mutilated shows a wanton disposition on the part of the perpetrators. Whoever is guilty of the dastardly act if caught will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law. The master is being looked after and the guilty may yet suffer the penalty for malicious destruction of public property.

Subscribers who do not receive their papers regularly are respectfully requested to call up Telephone No. 33. Don't tell your troubles to the Editor; it keeps him busy making fires, carrying ashes, and doing like chores, and therefore he hasn't time to carry the papers.

Workmen began concreting in West Second street today. Work has been pushed rapidly the past ten days with gratifying results.

In the County Court yesterday the following exonerations were made: J. S. Osborne for the Lindsay heirs, one lot in Minerva, $300; W. E. Tabb estate, seven lots in Dover, $400; George Morgan, one acre of land, $100; E. Worthington, one lot in Dover, $240, same being error in assessment.

Miss KATIE MILLER.

Morphine, Opium, Cocaine, Chloral and Liquor habitus cured without pain or failure within five or ten days, with utmost secrecy. A perfect cure guaranteed and no pay exacted until cured and satisfied at the Stewart-Hord Sanitarium. J. B. Stewart, M. D., Medical Director, and L. J. Hord, Manager, Shesbyville, Ind.

A pitiable and forlorn-looking woman, who gave her name as Lybrook, was an object of commiseration yesterday afternoon as she aimlessly wandered up Front street, bareheaded, her aškaw, thinly and lily clad and with dirty face and hands. She was not over thirty-five, and her face, though care-worn, bore traces of faded beauty. Her demeanor and talk indicated a weak mind and that she was ill plain to be seen. It is a case that demands the immediate attention of somebody.

MRS. EFFIE FIELDS.
Mrs. Effie Fields died last night at her home near the Cemetery, after a protracted illness with consumption, aged 20 years.

The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon from the home with services by Rev. G. W. Buntin.

Interment in Maysville Cemetery.

Sheet Music given away Monday at Gerbrich's.

Mrs. H. T. Davison and sister, Miss Grace Anderson, entertained the Afternoon Card Club yesterday morning.

M. C. Russell Company's force, supplemented by that of J. C. Cabilio and the entire outfit headed by Dr. Ray, composed a street sweeping gang that thoroughly cleaned the brick street in front of their business places in Third street yesterday. Strange to say they made a clean sweep of it too. It has been demonstrated that a high wind can lift the dust and dirt off a brick street with greater ease than that of a macadamized roadbed. To avoid dust keep the street clean in front of your premises.

DON'T WORRY ABOUT HOW YOU ARE BUILT!

We have made provisions for all those defects. When a garment leaves our place, no matter what priced garment it may be, we must be satisfied, which means that that defect is known only to yourself. This has been accomplished after many years consulting our patrons' interests. The weather is not only ideal for our street building enterprise, but is doubly so for those to buy their Winter Clothing who have not yet been fitted out. We cannot very well quote prices, but if you will only come in you will not only find our Clothing all right, but the prices will more than please you for the kind of merchandise we sell.

SHOES—We feel much gratified the way our shoe business is growing. It proves that our old patrons are satisfied and that we are daily adding new ones. Hanan, Douglas and Walkover Shoes for Men and Boys.

Speeches by Hon. S. J. Pugh and Others.

REMAINS MYSTERY

Death of Charles H. Stevenson at Chicago Still Unsolved

The mystery surrounding the death of Charles H. Stevenson, the lawyer whose lifeless body was found at the bottom of an elevator shaft in the rear of 96 Washington street, Chicago, nearly two weeks ago, is to remain unsolved so far as the Coroner's Jury is concerned.

The inquest was concluded yesterday and an open verdict returned.

The cause of death as given by the Coroner's physician were a broken neck and hemorrhage of the brain, due to external violence.

HISTORIC HOSTELRY

Scene of Many Shootings a Mass of Ruins at Jackson

The Arlington Hotel at Jackson, Breathitt county, which became noted during the bloody feudal trouble in that county, is a mass of ruins.

This structure, which was owned by Judge Sewell S. Taulbee, burned to the ground, entailing a loss of about $7,000.

The walls of nearly every room in the house were perforated by bullets, numerous encounters having taken place between members of the rival factions.

It was here that Tom Cockrell and Curt Jett emptied revolvers in the dining-room at each other.

Several plots, according to confessions of those interested, were laid for the assassination of James Marcus at the hotel.

Dr. E. D. Cox, the first man killed in the latter part of the Breathitt county feudal reign, was near the Arlington when assassinated, and Jim Marcus, later assassinated, lived next door at the time he was killed.

CHOICE WALKING SUITS

Most Recent WOOLTEX Ideas.

Parade suits would be a better name for them, because each is a marvel in expert tailoring and grace of style lines.

Shown in novelty mixtures, with all the clever WOOLTEX touches—those little details of finish which mean so much.

In all popular color effects and combinations, and priced so alluringly none can resist.

No matter how many other suits you require, you really need one of these.

Prices $17½ to $25.

NEW GLOVES

The new suit demands new gloves and you'll find them here in a variety of styles, colors and prices to meet every one's requirements.

$1 Real kid, carefully stitched, suede and glace in black, white and colors. Also Pique gloves in manly effect—tans, browns, reds.

Cartmell extracts teeth without pain.

One of M. C. Russell Company's mules, attached to their delivery wagon, picked up a nail in its left hind foot yesterday and had to be taken to Short & Keio's stock to have it removed.

Word has been received from the Rev. W. R. Ivey, Pastor of the First Baptist Church, that his son is improving and he expects to be in Mayaville next Monday night.

Ever Worn "Forrest Mills" UNDERWEAR?

If you have no preface is necessary—we simply tell you we're Maysville agents. If you haven't just ask a "Forrest Mills" wearer and be guided by her judgment—you'll come here to buy and keep on coming.

Children's Underwear—Heavy white 2x2 ribbed vests and drawers, sizes up to 34, all made full in every detail. 15c to 40c each, according to size. Union suits full fashioned and regular made fleeced and plain, sizes 4 to 16 years, 25c to 50c according to size.

Men's Underwear—Sizes up to and including 46 inches, in shirts and drawers in each quality. Fleeced or plain, white or natural, carefully finished, drawers in short or regular length inseam, unusual values at 50c and 75c a garment. At $1 each, shirts and drawers full fashioned, heavy weight, perfect fitting garments in Maco cotton or Merino.

Women's Underwear—25c garment, ribbed, fleeced, nicely finished shirts and drawers. 50c garment, medium or heavy weight Swiss ribbed, French band drawers, attractively finished vests. Black or White Tights at the same price. Also Union Suits, $1 garment, two piece and Union Suits. The former are silk-and-wool, the latter are fine Maco cotton in wrapper or oneita style.

SHOES Double Stamps Saturday on Shoes Only.

When we engaged Mr. W. R. Smith to take charge of our Shoe Department we told him that business is what we want; to get the best Shoes and sell them as close as possible, as we would rather sell 100 pairs at 25c profit than 50 pairs at 50c profit. We expect before our enlarged Shoe Department is six months old that every man, woman and child in the county will know about us. We expect to sell more Shoes than any store has ever sold here before. We MUST sell more. Did you know that the more any store sells the cheaper they can afford to sell? We have been in Maysville a little over five years. We can't see why we shouldn't be doing a million dollar business at our tenth year; and we expect our Shoe Department to help out considerably. Double Stamps on SHOES ONLY Saturday.

Bennett and Business. Vote for both. Colonel Rosecrans Murphy has thanks for late St. Paul papers.

Mr. J. N. McNee and Miss Eunie Scott of near Cynthiana were married Thursday at Lexington.

Mrs. Betty Welsh, a sister of Mrs. Pat Byron of Heleia, died Wednesday at her home at Centerville, Bourbon county, aged 35.

The annual convention of the Kentucky Equal Rights Association is to be held in Ashland the 21st and 22d of November.

Mrs. Eliza Willson Johnson, widow of the late James T. Johnson of Johnson Junction, died suddenly at her home Wednesday from heart failure.

Ollie Gash, aged 21, whose residence is given as Maysville, was granted a license in Covington Thursday to marry Miss Lula Noell, aged 21, of Verona, Ky.

In the Court of Appeals, in the suit of the City of Flemingsburg v. Fleming County, an agreement was filed and the appellant given sixty days to file brief.

Charles Eustis Kinsaid, one of Kentucky's most prominent newspapermen and at one time City Editor of The Courier-Journal, died Thursday in the City Hospital in Cincinnati.

Prof. Burris A. Jenkins, A. M., D.D., President of Kentucky University, Lexington, has tendered his resignation as the head of that institution, to take effect at once. This action was caused by continued ill health. Dr. Jenkins has been President of the University since June, 1901.

William Isgrig, a prominent Bourbon county farmer, lost twelve head of sheep a few nights ago by dogs. Mr. Isgrig had the sheep appraised and will file a claim for the recovery of $60 under the law recently passed by the Legislature, which reimburses farmers for the loss of sheep killed by dogs from the fund arising from the dog tax law.

The Rev. P. A. Cave writes from Carlisle that his meeting is progressing nicely. Large audiences fill the house at every service, and there have been a number of additions. The meeting will be continued over Sunday, and probably through all of next week. Rev. E. J. Willis will preach at the Christian Church in this city tomorrow, morning and night, and everyone member of the congregation is urged to be present.

A Good Hair-Food

Ayer's Hair Vigor, new improved formula, is a genuine hair-food. It feeds, nourishes, builds up, strengthens, invigorates. The hair grows more rapidly, keeps soft and smooth, and all dandruff disappears. Give your hair a good hair-food. Does not stain or change the color of the hair.

When this was learned of in Winchester disbarment proceedings were instituted.

The defendant's counsel was allowed several days to become familiar with the record.

The Harmon suit, out of which the disbarment proceedings grew, was noted in America,
South America and England, because of trials in all three countries.

Thomas G. Stuart and Archer Harmon were partners in the company, which purchased several hundred thousand acres of land in Kentucky and West Virginia.

Mrs. Florence Marshick, the famous English prisoner, was a stockholder in the Company.

The suit occurred between Stuart and Harmon, which went through numerous Courts, being last tried in England.

There Judge Beckner is alleged to have filed statements, alleging that adverse decisions to his client, Harmon, were secured in Kentucky by fraudulent methods.

When this was learned of in Winchester disbarment proceedings were instituted.
